

Family Conference Team Leaders

Requirements

Young men and women who have a desire to impact young people for Christ may apply to teach in the Family Conferences children's programs.

Age requirements:

- CI: young men and women 14 years old and older
- Pre-EXEL and COMMIT: young ladies 16 years old and older
- ALERT Cadets: young men 17 years old and older

Ministry Guidelines

No soldier goes to battle without the "basic gear" that will protect him against attacks of the enemy. For this reason, commitments in the following areas are essential for participation in this ministry. If you have not personally committed yourself to the Lord in each area, you are not qualified for this opportunity.

Salvation: Confessing and believing that God gave Jesus Christ, His only Son, to die for the sins of man; that Jesus rose from the dead; and that He is now seated at God's right hand. This area of commitment involves an assurance that, because I believe on Christ, He is my Savior and my Lord and has given me eternal life. (See Ephesians 1:19.)

Authority: Recognizing that God has placed authority structures over my life for protection, and submitting my will to Him by cheerfully placing myself under each of those authorities. (See Romans 13:1.)

Clear Conscience: Purposing to gain and keep a conscience void of offense toward God and others, and asking for forgiveness of each one whom I have wronged. (See I John 1:5–10.)

Modesty: We desire to be "like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind" (Philippians 2:2). One expression of this inward harmony is our outward appearance. As representatives of Jesus Christ, our desire is to have a neat, clean, and orderly appearance.

Total Dedication: Fully committing myself to the Lord as a "living sacrifice," and surrendering every area of my life to His control. (See Romans 12:1.)

Relationships: Purposing to honor God and my authorities in my friendships, and guarding my thoughts, words, and actions in order to maintain personal purity. Avoid defrauding actions, such as focusing attention on one individual, joking or jesting inappropriately, or making excuses to seek another's attention. (See Luke 10:27.)

Dress Guidelines

As an older role-model, the students in these programs will be looking to you for guidance in style, fashion, and modesty. Our goal is to be above reproach in these areas so that we can say with Paul, "Follow me as I follow Christ" (I Corinthians 11:1). The overall guideline for conference attire is conservative and modest in style. Program-specific dress guidelines will be communicated by your program director.

Prayer

Devote yourself to daily, fervent prayer. Prayer is not preparation for the work; prayer is the work.

- Ask God to cleanse and prepare you to be a clear channel through which He can work.
- Begin to pray for each child with whom you will be working, that God would cause each one to be open to His Word.
- Pray for families to be united, the hearts of fathers to be turned toward their children, and the hearts of children to be turned toward their fathers.
- Pray against the principalities and powers over the facility.
- Pray for your team leader or team assistant, that you will be of one heart and mind.

Thank you for your heart to invest in these young people. We look forward to working with you during the Conference!